Comments:

Father Morisset was an engaging and committed individual. Long after his retirement he continued to make periodic and surprise visits to “his” library.

“Father Morisset is highly respected for the sagacious use he has made of his talents in library affairs; but unflinching courtesy and tact, and generous helpfulness so often shown to his fellow-librarians, have won for him legions of friends, whose numbers will doubtless be swelled now that his star has swung into the orbit of the national association.”

— P.F. Spratt, O.M.I., writing in the Canadian Library Association Bulletin, 1947
