In recognition of her professional achievements, CLA published Librarianship in Canada, 1946 to 1967 following her retirement as Executive Director in 1968.

1988 Elizabeth Homer Morton fund established

Accomplishments:

Elizabeth was instrumental in the establishment of the Canadian Library Association.

Former National Librarian, W.K. Lamb said that Morton promoted CLA's interests with imagination, wisdom and boundless patience. Under her stewardship, CLA lobbied for the establishment of Libraries and Archives Canada and the Canadian Periodical Index. The Canadian Library Journal and Feliciter also began publication with Morton as editor.
